Daffodil Smart City, Ashulia, Dhaka - 1341, Bangladesh

Notice

Date: 04 September 2022

Recently we have received several queries full of anxiety from parents and students about the university's position on political affiliations.

Daffodil International University is dedicated to values of openness, inclusion, encouragement and mutual respect. We all know that we have a good number of clubs to develop leadership quality; improve cultural and social skills inside the university. At the same time, the University is politically neutral and does not endorse any political clubs or societies.

Moreover, the university is run by a government approved trustee board where memorandum of articles clearly mentions that no activities can be done with a political bias inside the organization.

University members are, of course, at liberty to pursue their personal interests of affiliations or associations with organizations outside the university as per their individual political values.

The Daffodil University logo cannot be used to promote any organizational affiliation or any other activity except with the written approval of the authority.
